餐饮听口实战演练

At the Fruit stand

- Hello, Mrs. White, how are you today?

- Not too bad, Bob. How's business?

- Pretty good, I just sold out of all the strawberries 5 mins ago.

- I should have come earlier. So, what's good at this moment?

- It's been sunny in the last weeks, which is good for the blueberries. The cherries are nice too.

- Mm, I don't know Bob. The blueberries I bought from you last week were kind of mushy, and not very sweet. These cherries look good though.

- Really? You should try these blueberries. The cultivated ones are nice and juicy.

- Yes, there're better. How much are they?
- They are 1.29 a pound, or you can get a box for 2.99.
- I'll take 2 boxes. Can I also have 2 pounds of cherries?
- Sure, would you like some homemade strawberry jam? My wife made it yesterday.
- No, thanks. I still have plenty at home. I'd like to get a couple of peaches though.
- They are 69 cents each. I'll give you a half dozen for 4 bucks.
- That's very nice of you. I think that would be all for today. How much do I owe you?
- Let me see. 2 boxes of blueberries, 2 pounds of cherries, plus peaches, that'll be 14.68. Just give me 14 dollars.
- Here you go. Thanks a lot Bob. See you next week.
- Have a good day, Mrs. White.

At the Veggie stand

- Good morning, Mrs. White. How can I help you?
- Hello, John. Where's Mrs. Rogers?
- My mom went down to Florida to see my grandmother. She'll be back next week.
- I see. It's just that I asked her to save some red peppers for me. Last week they were all gone when I got here.
- Don't worry. I've got tons of them here today. How many do you need?
- About 6. How much are the cabbages?
- They're 1.59 each.
- I just walked by Rolters. The cabbages over there are only a dollar and 29 each. You know, I'm a good customer. I come to you every week.
- Sure, I'll give you the same price. How many would you like?
- I'll take 3 heads of cabbages and a bag of string beans.
- Would you like some broad beans too? A Chinese chef told me they taste good in stew.
- Well, I prefer peas in stew. There are nice in the salad too. Anyway I just can't get enough peas.
- The peas are 2 dollars a pound. They are almost gone. How about I give the rest of them for 3 dollars?

- All right. How much is it in total?
- The total is 12.87... 7 dollars and 13 is your change. Thank you very much and have a nice day.
- You too, bye.

Buying Meat

- I really have no idea what I should do for dinner on Saturday night. We can't feed your parents frozen dinner. You've got to help me with this. What do they like?
- Don't be so anxious. My parents are quite easy to please. My mom likes potatoes, and my dad loves greasy food. And they are both meat eaters. We'll think something together.
- I remember we had beef tenderloin at Nancy's Christmas party. I could get the recipe from her. How's that sound?
- I don't think it's a good idea to have beef round this time. I'm concerned about mad cow diseases. You never know where the beef came from. We'd better play it safe.
- How about barbecue the ribs? We only need to cook them on the grill or choke them in the oven. It's easy and quick.
- Now, you're talking.
- Can I help you?
- How much are those ribs?
- 5.99 a pound. How much do you need?
- It's for 4 people. I guess 3 pounds should be enough.
- Is there anything else I can get for you? How about some lamb chops?
- I've never cooked lambs. What should I do with it?
- These are shoulder chops. They are good for making lamb stew.
- What part of the lamb is this?

- Oh, those are lamb shanks. A good way of cooking them is to grill them. And then serve the dish with grapy.
- Sounds great. Please cut 4 pieces for me.
- No problem.
- We've got ribs and lambs. But I think they are both a little heavy. Should we have something light, like chicken salad?
- You're right! Ribs and lambs are a bit heavy. Chicken salad would be nice. I know my mom likes chicken.
- I'd like some chicken breasts about 2 pieces. Could you take the skin off for me.
- We've got skinless and boneless chicken breasts over there. Would you prefer those?
- Yeah, even better. These look smaller. How much are they?
- 2.50 a pound. Let's make it seven dollars with one smaller piece. Is that alright with you?
- That's fine. Here're seven dollars. Thank you.

Passage

While I was on a vacation last week, I decided to visit some restaurants to try some of the local cuisine; however, I didn't have a clue about the types of restaurants available, so I checked an online restaurant guide to give me some ideas and tips. Mainly, I was interested in seafood restaurants, so I searched for restaurants within a reasonable walking distance from my hotel, and I found seven of them. Next, I reviewed the online menus of the places to check the dishes they prepared and the average cost of a meal.

上周休假时，我决定去一些餐馆品尝一下当地的美食；然而，我对可供选择的餐馆类型没有头绪，所以我查了一份网上餐馆指南，给我一些想法和提示。主要是，我对海鲜餐厅感兴趣，所以我搜索了离我的酒店有合理步行距离的餐厅，我找到了其中的七家。接下来，我查看了这些地方的在线菜单，查看他们准备的菜肴和一顿饭的平均费用。

However, price is not my first consideration; I enjoy a restaurant that has a wide selection from which to choose. Next, a restaurant's decor can always add to the dining experience (background music, decorations and wall hangings, seats and tables, etc.). If I'm going to a Mexican restaurant, I would expect to see the restaurant decorated in the Mexican flavor. Finally, I always consult restaurant reviews to find out what other people thought about the restaurant and their experiences. What was the quality of the food? Did the server provide fast and friendly service? Doing some research before you go can make dining a more pleasurable and predictable experience.

然而，价格并不是我的第一考虑因素；我喜欢一个有多种选择的餐厅，可以从中选择。接下来，餐厅的装饰总是可以增加用餐体验（背景音乐、装饰品和壁挂、座位和桌子等）。如果我去的是一家墨西哥餐厅，我希望看到餐厅的装饰是墨西哥风味的。最后，我总是查阅餐厅评论，了解其他人对该餐厅的看法和他们的经历。食物的质量如何？服务员是否提供了快速和友好的服务？在你去之前做一些研究，可以使用餐成为一个更愉快和可预测的经历。
